Europe Level A2

KET 1

Sample answer A

Mark: 5

This is an example of a good 5. All three parts of the message are clearly communicated in natural, error-free language.

Dear Richard,
I am going to England next Monday for three months and I would like to do an excursion with you around London.
See you soon,
Lily

Sample answer B

Mark: 4

The three parts of the message are clearly communicated. There are a number of structural errors (e.g. 'I'll like'), which prevent this candidate from scoring 5, but the errors do not impede communication of the message.

Hello Richard,
I'm so happy to see you soon. I'll like come 16th of June I hope this is right for you and I'll like to stay 2 weeks. I want to go to the theatre and in the evening I'll like going to the theatre, cinema and discho.
Katia

Sample answer C

Mark: 3

This candidate clearly communicates the three parts of the message. However, there are grammar and spelling errors which means the candidate would have scored 4. However, the writer is penalised for not including either a salutation or a signature on his/her postcard and therefore loses one mark and scores a 3.

I am coming on next Friday by plane. You will know right time, I will ring up. I want to stay about 10 days and I want to visit London but first - I would like to be with you.

Sample answer D

Mark: 2

Two parts of the message are clearly communicated, but the third ('I'm going to End of March') requires interpretation, as does the concluding sentence. Consequently, the candidate would score 3. However, the writer is penalised for not including a signature on his/her postcard, and so loses a mark and scores 2.

I'm going to End of March.
I will stay for two weeks.
I'd like to go anywhere and shopping, so I looking for you!

KET 1

Sample answer E

Mark: 0

Lack of linguistic resources make the message in this writing incomprehensible. It is unclear whether the writer is attempting a response to the input text and writing about future plans, or is attempting to describe impressions and past and/or present activities.

England is very big country. Before come here is very cold.
I in here Febremary 7th.
In here school study English is one year another school is long date.
